LEISURE & OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Cycling & E-Bike Tours

Erlauftal Cycling Path (Erlauftalradweg)

Passes directly by Erlebnisgasthof Wasserhammer!

- Length: approx. 80 km (stretching from the source of the Erlauf river all the way to the Danube)
- Suitability: Ideal for families, e-bikers, and leisure cyclists
- Scenery: Picturesque river meadows, gentle Mostviertel hills, and charming rustic villages

In-house Guest Infrastructure: E-bike charging station and e-bike rental directly at the gasthof.

Hiking & Scenic Walks

Meridian Stone – Gresten-Land ("The Blue-Yellow Greenwich")

At this exact spot, the 15th meridian east (Central European Time) intersects with the 48th parallel north — marked by the Meridian Stone erected in 1988. A popular rest stop for cyclists along the Kleiner Erlauftalradweg and hikers on the Proviantweg route.

The Hochkogel (711 m)

A favorite excursion peak located northwest of Randegg. Easily accessible with stunning panoramic views. From early May to late September, hikers frequently encounter young cattle grazing on the alpine pastures in suckler cow herds.

Goganz – The Local Mountain of Gresten (743 m)

A returnee memorial cross was erected at the summit in 1952. Close to the mountain farm lies the "Holy Family" chapel. After enjoying views toward Mt. Ötscher or Mt. Schwarzenberg, the Goganzhof farm welcomes hikers for a traditional stopover.
